

What and who are governors?

Pupil Forum had afternoon tea with the governors and found out all about them!

In January we had afternoon tea with the governors .We asked lots of different questions to the governors. There were 5 governors , they gave us lots of intresting answers. we learnt lots from them, and this power point is to show the answers that they gave us.

What are governors?

Governors are a selection from the community who are here to support the school. They include parents , staff and members of the local communities.

Why do we need governors?

Governors are here to support the school and to make us have a better education.

How do you become a governor? Can anyone become a governor?

Governors need to be selected or co-opted and you have to have skills.

Do you like children?

You wouldn't believe it but governors actually like children.

Why are you a governor? How long have you been a governor?

Governors are really new but some have been re-elected for a long time. Some governors have their job because some of their children go to this school.

What skills and qualities do you need to be a governor? Do you have to train to be a governor?

The governors said to be nosey and ask lots of questions. They have to do lots of training.

What is the best and most challenging thing you have done as a governor?

Some of the best things are seeing the children succeed and serving the Christmas dinner. The most tricky thing was choosing a new headteacher.

Do you get paid to be a governor?

You don't get paid to be a governor, they are volunteers.

What do you have to do as a governor? Do all governors have to do the same?

All governors have different responsibilities. They have to come to lots of meetings and visit the school.

What we think!

We like having govenors in our school

